MARY B. JORDAN SCHOLARSHIP FAQS

QUESTION	ANSWER
Who is eligible for scholarships?	To be eligible for the scholarship applicants must meet the following requirements: • A Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada. • Female or female-identified student who has maintained a minimum CGPA of 3.25 in their last year of study or 81% out of 100% where percentage grades are used. • Accepted into a Master Degree program for a business-related field. Some examples: MBA, Master of Business Analytics, Management of Technology MBA, Master of Science in Finance. • Students pursuing a Master Degree part time may be considered. • Demonstrate strong leadership and teamwork skills, community participation and/or involvement on or off campus, including an interest or participation in sports.
I'm currently in a one-year Master degree and will be completing end of summer (August 2026). Would I still be eligible to apply?	No. In order to be eligible for scholarship, you must be registered for a program and attending classes in the 2026-2027 academic session.
When you ask for minimum CGPA of 3.25, what percentage mark is that based on.	To be eligible for the scholarship, applicants must have maintained a minimum CGPA of 3.25 (based on a 4.0 scale) in the previous year of study or 81% out of 100% if your institution used percentages. If your institution uses a different scale, please convert your grades into either a GPA out of 4 or a percentage.
The official transcripts are sent directly from my post-secondary institution. Can I submit the unofficial electronic version?	Yes. You can send the unofficial electronic version of your transcripts as part of your application package, along with the other requirements, which can be found at yvr.ca/scholarships. If you are selected as a finalist for the scholarship, YVR will contact you for a copy of your official transcript.
I graduated, and I am not enrolled in any program. Am I still eligible to apply?	No. To be eligible for the scholarship, you must have been accepted and be attending a Master business program in the 2026-2027 academic session.
