

VANCOUVER AIRPORT AUTHORITY

CONCESSION APPLICATION FORM

This form may be completed and submitted by persons who wish to make known their interest in concession opportunities at Vancouver International Airport. The Authority might from time to time refer to the information submitted. The Authority does not by accepting this information undertake to do so, or undertake any duty or liability to applicants or prospective operators or proponents. All information submitted to the Authority becomes the property of the Authority and is not confidential.

Not every applicant will be invited to participate in opportunities. For obvious reasons, we prefer experienced operators with a good track record and with suitable financial strength and stability. This will initially be assessed based on the information supplied in this form. We reserve the right to ask for additional information and clarification.
